The mission of Ke Ali'i Pauahi Foundation is to support the mission of Kamehameha Schools by seeking and developing new and diverse sources of income to support the ever-increasing educational needs and goals of people of Hawaiian ancestry.

MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT AND THE EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

Aloha e Ke Ali'i Pauahi Foundation 'ohana,

On November 4, 1887, Princess Bernice Pauahi Bishop's hope for a vibrant and thriving lāhui began with the opening of the Kamehameha School for Boys at Kaiwi'ula, where Bishop Museum stands today. Throughout the years, her undying legacy has embraced many with educational and life experiences that have set the path for later success. This act of selfless giving by our princess is deserving of our perpetual gratitude.

Ke Ali'i Pauahi Foundation has focused its efforts on continuing Pauahi's legacy into perpetuity by providing giving opportunities to beneficiaries of her legacy. With the help of our generous donors, the Foundation raised over $600,000 in total revenue at the end of fiscal year 2010-2011 – up 37 percent from the previous fiscal year. These important gifts allowed us to provide over $350,000 in scholarships and grants to support educational opportunities for native Hawaiians.

With the transition of key Alumni Relations functions to the Foundation, a greater emphasis has been put on growing our Kamehameha alumni donor group. In fiscal year 2010-2011, alumni participation numbers increased to 5 percent, or about 1,000 alumni. Although we have seen constant improvement, alumni participation is far from reaching its full potential, especially with more than 25,000 living alumni.

Ke Ali'i Pauahi Foundation remains steadfast in growing our donor numbers and dollars, so that more native Hawaiians can benefit from Pauahi's legacy. Our success is a direct result of your selfless giving and continued support. We are blessed to have your kōkua, and look forward to future opportunities to continue Pauahi's legacy.

Me ka ha'aha'a,

Dee Jay Mailer KSK'70
President

Kalei Stern KSK'89
Executive Director

BENEFICIARIES OF PAUAHI'S LEGACY

Through the generous gifts of our donors and supporters, Ke Ali'i Pauahi Foundation was able to extend Pauahi's legacy by providing the much needed support to those pursuing their educational goals. In total, we provided over $350,000 in scholarships and grants to support educational opportunities for native Hawaiians.

His ultimate goal is to gain global experience in Asia and then return to Hawai'i for the remainder of his career.

"Being of Hawaiian descent, I'm very thankful for Bernice Pauahi Bishop's beliefs and core values. She was a visionary in her goal of providing access to education to as many Hawaiian people as possible. An education is the greatest gift you can give a person. It is remarkable that after 100+ years after her death that her vision and positive impact is still being felt throughout the Hawaiian community."

Pennies for Pauahi:

Kamehameha Schools Hawai'i Students and the Foundation Team Up to Benefit Preschools

Through Ke Ali'i Pauahi Foundation's Pennies for Pauahi program, haumāna at Kamehameha Schools are going beyond the typical curriculum to learn an important lesson of "kahiau," or to give generously from the heart.

Kahiau is a value that is best portrayed in the generosity of Ke Ali'i Pauahi.

A student-driven fundraising program, Pennies for Pauahi is meant to instill the act of giving at a young age, so that when the students are older, they understand the importance of kahiau and have already established their own legacy of giving.

"As a student or alumni of Kamehameha Schools, we are truly blessed by the educational opportunities and experiences that have presented themselves as a result of our princess' generosity," said Kalei Stern KSK'89, executive director of Ke Ali'i Pauahi Foundation.

"The Pennies for Pauahi program gives the students an opportunity to continue Pauahi's legacy of giving in a simple, non-intimidating way, by collecting pennies and other loose change."

Started five years ago on the Kamehameha Schools Hawai'i campus by its elementary students, the program has now grown to also include the middle school and high school, as well as recent start-ups on both the Maui and Kapālama campuses.

"We want the students to learn how to give back and acquire that value of kahiau," said Marcie Kunz Saquing KSK'72, parent education and student activities coordinator at the Hawai'i campus. "Eventually, if we continue this practice of Pennies for Pauahi, the value of kahiau becomes an intrinsic part of who these students are when they become adults."

Recently, the students from the Hawai'i campus collected more than $2,000 worth of donations. Understanding how important it is to help others in need, the students and their advisors asked the Foundation if the money could be given to preschools in their community.

Kaolapa Masuko KSH'23 and Autumn Tada KSH'23 drop their coins into the Pennies for Pauahi container at Kamehameha Schools Hawai'i.

Officials with the Foundation liked that idea, especially knowing that it extends the reach of Kamehameha Schools' mission into the community. As a result, the Foundation supplemented the original amount with an additional $18,000 from their Early Childhood Literacy and Education Fund.

Ke Ali'i Pauahi Foundation selected five Hilo preschools to benefit from the donation – Pūnana Leo O Hilo, Kula Kamali'i o Hi'ikeakaikamālama, Kako'o Ka 'Umeke, Haili Christian School, and E Maka'ala Preschool.

All preschools used the donations for materials and supplies that have helped them provide a vibrant and culturally rich learning environment including computers, computer software, tables for the keiki and art supplies.

"The Pennies for Pauahi program is in direct alignment with one of the more important Hawaiian values we teach our keiki at Pūnana Leo – 'kuleana' or responsibility," said Lenneth Pavao, Jr., site coordinator at Pūnana Leo O Hilo.

"We stress the importance of 'ohana to our keiki, and not only is it important to take responsibility for yourself and your own actions, but, it is essential in the context of 'ohana and community that we are accountable to those who make up our 'ohana and our community. E kōkua kekahi i kekahi."

Please visit www.pauahi.org for more information and a video of this past year's Pennies for Pauahi campaign.

KAMEHAMEHA SCHOOLS' ALUMNI DONORS

Through the love and vision of Ke Ali'i Pauahi, Kamehameha Schools was established in 1887 to ensure that the lāhui would flourish and grow into a vibrant and thriving community. Pauahi's legacy has benefited many in their life's endeavors. Her legacy continues to give and multiply through the many alumni who choose to become benefactors by giving forward.

Class of 1963 Takes the S.M.A.R.T. Approach to Giving

S.M.A.R.T., or specific, measurable, attainable, realistic, and timely, is a goal setting tool used by businesses to create actionable plans for results. The S.M.A.R.T. approach was key in establishing and growing the class of 1963's scholarship fund.

The class fund was established back in 2009 when fellow classmates and alumni class representatives, Paulyne Anakalea and Phillip Arnold, noticed the lack of overall alumni participation – less than 2 percent annually. Since then, the fund has been one of the fastest growing to date. Much of the class' success has been a combination of solid planning and goal setting that is fueled by a passion to continue Pauahi's legacy of giving.

"When I first became a class rep, the Foundation only had 12 endowed class scholarships," Arnold said. "As recipients of Pauahi's legacy, we all have the kuleana to help other Hawaiians who are not fortunate to attend any of the campuses."

Seeing the urgent need, Arnold and Anakalea approached classmate Momi Ho Kometani, and the three of them rallied a dedicated group from their class. The group then worked with Bran-Dee Torres KSK'93, development administrator at the Foundation, to set the framework for their class fund. The group also learned of the Foundation's Matching Incentive Program, which is a one-time incentive for qualified donors who need kōkua with reaching the $20,000 threshold necessary to establish a scholarship endowment.

From there, the group established a plan of action and put it in motion, which was second nature to Arnold who was instrumental in guiding the group with his more than 30 years of business management experience in the banking industry.

"To be successful in any endeavor, you need a vision of where you want to be. That vision will only come alive with proper planning and goal setting," Arnold shared.

The group's success was also the result of well-coordinated communication campaigns like periodic newsletters, telethons and write-a-thons to reach and engage their classmates on a more personal level. Their hard work has netted a 32 class participation rate, which equate to 90 out of 283 classmates who gave a gift towards their class scholarship fund.

"It is very impressive to see what the class of 1963 has done so quickly," said Kalei Stern KSK'89, executive director of Ke Ali'i Pauahi Foundation. "Their business-savvy and passion for continuing Pauahi's legacy serves as a model for other classes interested in establishing a class fund."

The class reached its first goal of $20,000 within five months of establishing their fund. They now have their sights set on reaching their ultimate goals of $50,000 and 50% class participation by their 50th reunion in May 2013. With the S.M.A.R.T. approach, the class of 1963 will reach both goals in no time!

Kamehameha Schools' 'ohana of faculty and staff have been true and committed stewards of Pauahi's legacy. Through their continued support with Workplace Giving and other giving opportunities, the Foundation has been able to provide essential funding through post-high scholarships and grants to Hawaiian learners of all ages. Together, we will ensure that Pauahi's legacy continues to grow, so that we thrive as a community. Mahalo palena 'ole.

Kamehameha Alumni and Coworkers Give Forward as Benefactors

When Dawson Kaaua KSK'01 moved back to Hawai'i to work in Kamehameha Schools' Financial Assets Division's Investment Associates Program – a three-year pre-MBA rotational program designed to give young professionals the opportunity to be involved in the management of Kamehameha Schools' endowment – little did he know that he would learn a valuable lesson on giving forward.

"After coming back in 2008, I was surprised that only 2 percent out of the 25,000 Kamehameha alumni actually donated," Kaaua said, who is now pursuing a master of business administration at the University of Pennsylvania's Wharton School of Business. "That, and the fact that Kamehameha Schools only reaches 7 percent of all school-age Hawaiians was motivation to start our class scholarship."

Kaaua's passion quickly caught on with fellow classmates, including Christine Hew, Leah Mills Freitas, Chauna Valdez, Rachel Nieto, Umi Jensen, No'eau Camarillo, Raine Arndt, and Wayne Coito. The classmates utilized hard work and fundraising tools like white elephant sales, online auctions, and good old fashioned asking to grow their class of 2001 scholarship fund.

"You don't need to take huge risks or have connections to raise money," Kaaua added. "There are a lot of risk-free tools to take advantage of. You just have to put in the hours and do it."

The group leveraged their class size to drive participation instead of focusing on big dollar donations, which garnered quick results.

"What we lack in large salaries, we more than made up in the number of able and willing bodies," Kaaua explained. "We always stressed the importance of giving what you can afford."

The class' success has amounted to more than $37,000 raised for their class fund. More impressive is the skyrocket increase in class participation; from 3 percent in 2008 to 29 percent at the end of 2011.

Kaaua's motivation to continue Pauahi's legacy has rubbed off on others like Talia Ruth KSK'02. Like Kaaua, Dawson Kaaua KSK'01 and Talia Ruth KSK'02 at Dawson's going away party before he headed off to attend the Wharton School of Business at the University of Pennsylvania.

Ruth came back to Hawai'i to work in Kamehameha Schools' Investment Associates Program after going to school overseas. Soon after starting in 2010, Ruth quickly learned why Kamehameha alumni should give back.

"I always knew about Ke Ali'i Pauahi Foundation, but it wasn't until I met Dawson that I realized we could give back through scholarships," Ruth said, who, after receiving her bachelor's in economics in 2006 from Stanford University, went on to receive her master's in economics and management science in 2010 from Humboldt Universitaet zu Berlin in Germany.

"We both worked in Kamehameha Schools' Financial Assets Division, and witnessed firsthand how hard it was to grow the school's endowment, so I knew it was important to start our class scholarship to help extend Pauahi's legacy to other Hawaiians."

After initiating the class of 2002 scholarship, Ruth often collaborated with Kaaua and his classmates on the fundraising front. In fact, this past summer, the class of 2001 managed the Foundation's first ever online auction, which raised more than $10,000. Ruth was able to shadow Kaaua throughout the process, and gain valuable insight which she recently used for the Foundation's holiday auction and will use for the second annual online auction in June 2012 during Kamehameha Schools' Alumni Week.

There are plans to open the auction to other classes to shadow and take advantage of this great fundraising tool.

"Regardless our age or financial status, we are all beneficiaries of Pauahi's generosity and legacy. We need to start thinking of ourselves as benefactors and living our lives like Pauahi by giving back" Kaaua added.

Mahalo nui loa to those individuals and organizations in the community that chose to give and continue Pauahi's legacy of giving. We are greatly appreciative of your gift, and welcome you to our 'ohana.

The Kekoa 'Ohana, a Family Stewarding a Legacy of Education and Service

Prior to attending Kamehameha Schools, retired Air Force Col. Curtis Kekoa, Sr. KSK'40 was selling pencils in downtown Honolulu at the brink of dropping out of middle school. After some encouragement from one of his public school teachers, Curtis applied and was later admitted to the Kamehameha School for Boys as a ninth grader. He attended on financial aid up until his graduation.

"My father epitomized the exact individual Pauahi's will was meant to help and support," said daughter Kekoa Kekoa Enomoto KSK'64, who changed her first name from Catherine to Kekoa in honor of her father. "His accomplishments and passion for serving others are the direct result of his time at Kamehameha Schools."

After losing their father and mother Nenita, Kekoa and her siblings, Curtis Kekoa Jr. KSK'67 and Kevin Kekoa KSK'77, decided to honor their parents with a scholarship that would carry on their legacy. They worked closely with the Foundation's development administrator, Bran-Dee Torres KSK'93, to set up the parameters of their scholarship, which will be offered to post-high students pursuing an education in the area of, but not limited to, military and/or music.

"Education was top priority in our family, and our parents made sure we had the support to flourish," said Kevin, who is the application services manager at HMSA. "As a family, we now have the opportunity to give the gift of an education to other Hawaiians through our family's scholarship while honoring our parents."

A few years after graduating from high school, Curtis Sr. enlisted in the Army Air Corps and went on to serve a decorated 31-year career that spanned three major wars as a pilot and officer. His service citations include the Distinguished Flying Cross with seven Oak Leaf Clusters, Bronze Star, World War II Victory Medal, Korean Service Medal, United Nations

Service Medal, National Defense Service Medal, Air Force Outstanding Unit Award, Air Force Commendation Ribbon and Legion of Merit.

Curtis met wife Nenita Maldonado while on military leave in Los Angeles, and the two would later marry in 1945. An immigrant from the Philippines at age 2, Nenita grew up in Hollywood and came from a family that put education first. She graduated from the University of California at Los Angeles, and later went back to school through the University of Colorado's extended education program to become a paralegal.

After retiring from the Air Force, Curtis Sr. went back to school in his 50s to get his law degree from the University of Southern California. At the time, he had a family of three and was the oldest graduate when he finished law school. Nenita stood by him and provided the extra support at home to enable him to finish school.

The Kekoa 'ohana would later move back to Hawai'i where all three of their children attended and graduated from Kamehameha Schools Kapālama. The younger generation would soon follow including Kekoa's daughter Lehua Enomoto Kadooka KSK'87, Kevin's son Kody Kekoa KSK'10 and daughter Kiana Kekoa KSK'12

"My 'ohana has been blessed by Pauahi's legacy for three generations," Kevin said. "Just as much as it is a tribute to our parents, this scholarship is also a tribute and mahalo to Ke Ali'i Pauahi."

ADVANCING EDUCATION OPPORTUNITIES FOR MORE HAWAIIANS

In addition to scholarships, there are four additional areas of interest where donors may designate their support to assist more children of Hawaiian ancestry.

CHARTER SCHOOL SUPPORT

One of the ways in which Pauahi's legacy is being extended to reach haumāna who are not able to attend Kamehameha Schools' campuses is through Charter School support. The Foundation is helping to build awareness and get support for these courageous schools that give haumāna a choice at a culturally rich education. Hawaiian-focused public charter schools offer unique services to children and families based on culturally grounded pedagogy and instruction. Haumāna attending these charter schools achieve marked academic improvement, become leaders in all that they do, and represent their kūpuna well.

The demand for culturally relevant education is growing. Most charter schools have wait lists of students who would like to attend but aren't able to because of limited funding for facilities and operations. Some schools are operating out of temporary facilities and funding their activities from their own pockets.

Through Kamehameha Schools' Ho'olako Like program, each of the 14 Hawaiian-Focused Charter Schools are given assistance with their daily operational needs and facility improvements.

While these schools are doing an excellent job with the limited resources they have, they could do even more with our kōkua.

Through the Foundation's Early Childhood Education and Literacy Fund, preschools like Ke Kula Kamali'i O Hi'i'ikeakāmalama in Hilo were able to purchase essential school supplies.

Advancing the Hawaiian Language will assist efforts to preserve Hawaiian language and heritage, like the work of 'Aha Pūnana Leo, Hawaiian immersion schools or other efforts to build and share 'Ōlelo Hawai'i. The Foundation is also working with Kamehameha Publishing to distribute books written in 'Ōlelo Hawai'i to K-12 schools throughout Hawai'i.

LAND STEWARDSHIP

Funds raised through the Foundation's Land Stewardship Fund will support efforts to mālama i ka 'āina. Historically, land has always been an integral part of Hawaiian culture. Through support from our generous donors, the Foundation will support those who are preserving these precious lands for all generations, assuring that natural and cultural resources are cared for.

EARLY CHILDHOOD EDUCATION AND LITERACY

The Early Childhood Education and Literacy Fund is very important to the Foundation's mission to serve more children of Hawaiian ancestry. By providing literacy support to students, their parents and caregivers, and by promoting culturally relevant learning, these keiki will get the kōkua they need to achieve future success in school.

Additionally, the Foundation and the Harold K.L. Castle Foundation have partnered to support literacy education programs in Windward O'ahu public schools. Studies have shown that increasing competence in writing and reading predicts future success in school. Simple skills that many of us take for granted are not guaranteed, so the support that comes from our Foundation and others makes a lifetime difference.

HOW YOU CAN MAKE A DIFFERENCE

Contributions made to Ke Ali'i Pauahi Foundation reflect gifts from the heart and will help to carry forward the vision of Ke Ali'i Pauahi to empower Hawaiians through education. The Foundation is a 501 (c) (3) tax-exempt organization; therefore, contributions made to the Foundation are tax deductible to the extent permitted by law. Additionally, 100 percent of your gift goes to help others as Kamehameha Schools covers the Foundation's administrative and overhead expenses.

Unrestricted Donations: Unrestricted gifts allow the Foundation the flexibility to respond to the areas of most critical need. These outright gifts include cash, appreciated property (real estate, stock) or tangible personal property.

Restricted Donations: Restricted gifts define a program, project or scholarship of special interest to the donor.

Tribute Gifts: Tribute gifts are made in honor or memory of individuals, family members, friends or colleagues. This is a meaningful way to honor loved ones in perpetuity.

Future Gifts: A future gift is arranged now, but the Foundation's use of the funds is delayed to a later time. The funds from bequests are available to utilize at the end of the donor's life. Other ways of making a future gift are naming the Foundation as beneficiary of a portion of an IRA or other retirement plan, or life insurance policy, or establishing a charitable remainder trust with the principal payable to the Foundation when the trust terminates.

Corporate Matching Gifts: Corporations will often match an employee's charitable gift dollar for dollar. Please check with your employer to see if your contribution qualifies for this category.
