lives on through YOU

ALOHA MAI E NĀ KOA O KAMEHAMEHA,

As we reflect on the accomplishments of this past fiscal year, this Annual Report reminds us of the many opportunities to empower Native Hawaiian haumāna in their pursuit of a quality education.

Ke Ali'i Pauahi's vision is amplified by our generous donors. Thanks to your support, we have so much to celebrate and be proud of. Our partnerships with donors reaffirm that we are strongest when we work together.

We are deeply grateful for the kōkua of KS Alumni, employees, corporations and community members who help the Pauahi Foundation steward Ke Ali'i Pauahi's legacy through your gifts. Supporting the success of Native Hawaiian learners remains our driving purpose, and we look forward to what lies ahead as we continue to center on Ke Ali'i Pauahi's vision in all that we do.

With the help of our donors, we disbursed more than $1.5 million in preschool, post-secondary scholarship and fellowship funds last fiscal year. Every award represents an opportunity for haumāna to pursue higher education and for our broader community to benefit from their accomplishments as 'ōiwi leaders.

We are especially proud of the continued growth and success of the Mānowai Scholarship Program. This innovative fundraising model reduces barriers for donors who want to make a meaningful impact without establishing a full endowed scholarship fund, while providing qualified recipients with timely access to support. Last year, we awarded 56 Mānowai scholarships and we aim to expand this impact even further in the years ahead.

Your support of scholarships and campus programs uplifts the next generation of 'ōiwi leaders. As we refine and expand diverse and innovative giving campaigns, you play an essential role in perpetuating Ke Ali'i Pauahi's legacy. Please join us today by making a gift at Pauahi.org.

Stay connected by subscribing to our monthly Kahiau e-newsletter for the latest news, updates and stories of impact. You can also engage with us on our KS Alumni (@kamehamehaalumni) and Pauahi Foundation (@pauahifoundation) social media channels. We look forward to welcoming you at our upcoming gatherings!

KS Preschool haumāna collect "Pennies for Pauahi"

Hundreds of haumāna, kumu and staff across the KS Preschool campuses contribute annually to the Pauahi Foundation through the "Pennies for Pauahi" fundraising campaign.

Kamehameha Schools Kalihi-Pālama Preschool presented the Pauahi Foundation with a check for $400 raised by collecting "Pennies for Pauahi." In addition to the fundraising effort, the keki wrote Valentines cards for kūpuna at Lunalilo Home.

Together with Kamehameha Schools He'eia, Kikiwelawela, and Hale'iwa Preschools, a total of $1,415 was raised as part of this collective effort!

Mahalo to our youngest learners, their teachers and 'ohana for embracing a culture of giving as we all work together to uplift the lāhui!

Pauahi Foundation's Donor Wall honors generous supporters

Generous Pauahi Foundation donors came together to celebrate their collective commitment to help Native Hawaiian students achieve their educational goals with the highly anticipated unveiling of Nā Hanohano (the Donor Wall) on 'Āina Pauahi at Pearl at Kalauao on Saturday, Jan. 25, 2025.

The inaugural event recognized donors who gave $1,000 or more to the Pauahi Foundation in the 2024 calendar year on Nā Hanohano as well as the resulting scholarships across the entryway at Pearl at Kalauao on Nā Kīpaipai (the Scholarship Wall).

“Ke Ali'i Pauahi doesn't walk alone because of you, our donors!” says Pauahi Foundation Executive Director Pono Ma'a KSK'82. “As we unveil this inaugural donor wall, we recognize a diverse group of donors including alumni, staff, individuals, corporations and 'ohana who have shared in the same belief as our beloved Ke Ali'i Pauahi. Whether through a one-time gift, an annual pledge, reunion giving or workplace giving, each act of aloha empowers haumāna and inspires hope.”

Nā Hanohano is organized according to the Pauahi Foundation's refreshed giving levels that reflect various types of rain in Hawai'i. While varied in size and volume, all these gifts make a meaningful difference for the environment and those who depend on it. The metaphoric use of water representing gifts pairs with the light of Ke Ali'i Pauahi's vision.

Donors who make a gift of $1,000 or more during a calendar year will be included when the wall is refreshed the following year – an added motivation and lasting recognition for those who give generously in support of Native Hawaiian learners and the next generation of leaders poised to carry the lāhui forward.

Innovative approach to fundraising flows through Mānowai

The Pauahi Foundation hosted Ka Hui 'Ōhu - Mānowai at the Barn at SALT at Our Kaka'ako to unveil the 2024 Donor Mural on Nov. 14, 2024.

In attendance were donors who contributed to the Mānowai Scholarship, along with friends and supporters of the foundation. Guests enjoyed an evening filled with entertainment and a delightful food tasting experience.

A key highlight of the evening was the announcement by Pauahi Foundation Executive Director Pono Ma'a that donor support not only met but exceeded the initial fundraising goal. The generosity of our donors allowed 56 students to receive a $1,000 scholarship award to support their post-secondary education in the 2025-26 academic year.

The Mānowai Scholarship program helps solve the issue of meeting the ever-growing demand for financial support. To learn more about the Mānowai Scholarship and to view the 2024 gallery of award recipients, visit Pauahi.org/mānowai.

Leadership Speaker Series sails on

Like voyagers finding their place in the world, Kamehameha Schools haumāna are forging a path as the leaders of tomorrow.

Students from all three KS campuses gathered at KS Maui on Feb. 11, 2025, for the latest Leadership Speaker Series forum to further develop skills as 'ōiwi leaders through the lens of traditional Polynesian voyaging.

We are grateful and thankful to Vaughn Vasconcellos KSK'71 as his generous gift makes the Leadership Speaker Series possible! His heart and vision shine through as this collaborative effort grows year after year.

LEGACY GIVING SPOTLIGHT

Paying it forward by giving back

When Gayton “JR” Costa and his wife, Linda, returned to Hawai‘i from their home in Cottonwood, Arizona, in June to celebrate his 75th birthday with fellow Class of 1968 schoolmates during the annual Kamehameha Schools Alumni Reunion Celebration, their visit became a heartfelt journey of reconnection, reflection, and giving back.

Amid a week of cherished traditions, including attending Alumni Lū‘au and Kūpuna Pā‘ina, the Costas also made time to meet with the Pauahi Foundation team to thoughtfully shape the criteria for their planned gift, driven by their deep commitment to uplifting future generations.

Their philanthropic spirit culminated in the establishment of a $50,000 endowed fund through a stock gift. In addition, the couple formalized their legacy giving intentions with a planned gift valued at $450,000, for a remarkable total contribution of $500,000 to the Pauahi Foundation.

“Being a Kamehameha Schools Alumni and the recipient of an excellent education, with so many opportunities to build leadership and life skills, set me on the path to a successful career and a good life,” JR says.

“Linda, who moved to Hawai‘i from the continent, always says her life changed when she met me,” he adds with a smile. “And since then, my classmates from Kamehameha have welcomed and embraced her like one of their own. That kind of aloha has made a lasting difference.”

Linda agrees, adding: “We were just talking about how something as simple as the KS Alumni license plate cover creates connection. My husband gave me one for my car in Arizona, and wherever I went, people would pull up next to me and say, ‘Hey, sister, how you doing?’ I’d tell them it was my husband’s alma mater, and they’d respond with such warmth. It reminded me of the strength of the Kamehameha Schools ‘ohana and how far that spirit of aloha travels.”

Inspired by that enduring sense of belonging and gratitude, the Costas began thinking deeply about how they could give back.

“As we reflected on the blessings in our lives and how we might leave a legacy that uplifts others, we thought, ‘Why not pay it forward?’” JR says. “We recognize that it was Ke Ali’i Pauahi’s generosity that made all of this possible for us and we wanted to give in our own way to continue that legacy through the Pauahi Foundation.”

The Costa’s did extensive research on Pauahi Foundation education program support opportunities and decided to dedicate their funds to support Kamehameha Schools programs and initiatives that focus on educational pathways in trades and skilled services. Their intent is to empower KS haumāna who plan to enter the workforce directly after high school or college, as well as those looking to pivot into new careers.

“That’s where we decided to focus our giving: on Native Hawaiian students staying home to raise their families and be able to have a home and continue school with a good income,” JR says.

The Costas have used this giving opportunity to tell others with similar means and motivations why it’s important to give back to others through the Pauahi Foundation.

“We hope that our giving will inspire others and give new donors an opportunity to share their wealth or whatever they have, even volunteering or anything they can do to give back,” JR says. “We’ve also encouraged some of my classmates to do the same! The Pauahi Foundation staff makes the process to set up a planned gift very easy.”

The Costas remain based in Arizona and enjoy traveling all over the world. Though they’ve embraced diverse people, places, and traditions, they always find their hearts anchored in Hawai’i. Their recent trip home gave them a moment to pause and reflect on all they’ve been given, and all they hope to give back.

“You can take the boy out of the islands, but you can’t take the islands out of the boy,” JR says, recalling the deep connection he feels to his upbringing and the Kamehameha ‘ohana that shaped him.

When asked to reflect on the appreciation he has for Ke Ali’i Pauahi and the lasting impact that his experience at Kamehameha Schools has made on his life, JR pauses for a moment and says: “I would just give her a big hug and kiss and say, ‘I’m so grateful that you’ve done this for Hawaiian children because it has made such a difference in their lives.’ And, it will continue because Kamehameha Schools is going to keep going and continue to do great work.

“Linda and I would thank her for her generosity, foresight and her gift. Without that, you wouldn’t have what we do today. And we would not put out the quality learners and leaders that we have today.”

- Gayton Costa KSK’68

CORPORATE GIVING SPOTLIGHT

KS Alumni business owner makes room for giving

Kamuela Ku Potter KSK'82

As a successful business owner, Kamuela Ku Potter KSK'82 embraces her kuleana to give back to the next generation of Native Hawaiian learners who are poised to become tomorrow's 'ōiwi leaders.

Potter is a Kamehameha Schools “lifer,” completing the 13-year journey from kindergarten through 12th grade before going on to study engineering at the University of Hawai'i at Mānoa. She eventually realized that engineering was not the right fit and pivoted to the field of communications while working for local clothing giant Crazy Shirts.

“I started as a stock person, and 20-something years later, after working a variety of positions, I ended up as regional manager,” Potter says. “It was a fabulous company, but when ownership changed, I moved on and found myself wondering what I was going to do. A friend suggested that I help her remodel her house and look into closet organizers.”

Potter agreed, and from there, she formulated the concept for what would become Inspired Closets Hawai'i and continues to run the business more than two decades later with her husband, Brent. The Potters also make it a priority to give back to their community and are generous donors to the Pauahi Foundation. They recently contribut-

“It's important to give back to your community. As a business owner, I know that I contribute not just to the 20 people that work for me, but also their families and beyond. What we do as a business makes an impact, and our reputation is everything, so I really take that to heart.

- Kamuela Ku Potter KSK'82

ed to the Mānowai Scholarship Fund, an innovative giving opportunity that helps solve the ever-increasing need for post-secondary educational support.

“When I started the business, we started as Organized Hawai'i and I worked with a manufacturer in Michigan – and I'm still with the same manufacturer!” Potter says. “The business has been continuous, and we love what we do. When I started out, what I enjoyed doing was helping people with their homes. Hawai'i's homes are very small, and so are the closets, so you have 'x' amount of space, so our business helps people maximize what space they have; it's been a lot of fun over the years.”

Potter recalls her early days with the company as the lead salesperson and installer with one helper. Fast forward to today, and Inspired Closets Hawai'i has grown to include 20 employees, while serving all major islands across the state.

“We all have the same level of commitment to helping people, and just looking around the showroom, there are options for everybody,” Potter says. “All walks of life, all members of the family and diverse types of people is what we're going for as far as who we serve. We can work with any size home as we help someone imagine and bring their dream closet to reality.”

At the Inspired Closets Hawai'i showroom on the second floor of the 'Ewa-makai building of SALT at Our Kaka'ako on 'Āina Pauahi, existing clients and potential customers are transported to a world of possibilities when it comes to storage – from elaborate walk-in closets to innovative kitchen spaces and space-saving garage and hobby nooks.

“The whole purpose of the showroom is for people who walk in the front door to imagine something beyond what they may actually be able to in their house or apartment,” Potter explains. “It inspires people.”

Inspired Closets Hawai‘i showcases everything from Murphy beds, which are space savers and allow a room to be used for two purposes, to closets that are more practical in size. There are also reimagined garage units, and transforming furniture including sofas and desk units.

“We sell quite a bit of these transformational furniture elements to people who are in studios, such as those in Kaka‘ako,” Potter says. “A lot of the buildings have smaller footprints so they can have multiple uses in a single room. It’s fun, and when people come through, they can see ideas come to life versus just looking at it on paper. They can feel and see features and find out what they enjoy.”

Potter adds that what she enjoys most about the business is “helping people realize what they could do in their house. A lot of times, they can’t do it all at once, but they can start and go from there. We’ve had clients that started with us 20 years ago, and now I’m doing their second homes, meaning they’ve upgraded. For some, I’m doing their children’s homes!”

As a Native Hawaiian business owner, Potter makes it a priority to maintain her connection to the local community and give back to support others.

“Going to Kamehameha Schools made a really big impact on me,” Potter says. “In hindsight, you look back and understand the legacy once you’ve gone through it, especially after moving on to run a business. It’s an honor to give back and I’m humbled by it. I come from a place where when you give, you don’t talk about it and do it for the right reason. Ke Ali‘i Pauahi wanted us to be industrious, so it’s truly a gift to be able to give back.”

While there are many worthy local charitable foundations and causes throughout Hawai‘i, Potter says that the choice to give to the Pauahi Foundation was an easy one.

“The Pauahi Foundation is the continuing legacy of Ke Ali‘i Pauahi and generations of Hawaiians who have gone to Kamehameha Schools,” Potter says. “All the memories from the time you’re a small child, to this day, you don’t take for granted the excellent education you receive. Understanding your culture and her beliefs, that instills character in in students. So, when I was asked to consider giving, I always wanted to and I’m glad the Pauahi Foundation asked. I should have done it sooner!”

Potter explains that she has made it a priority to include giving in her future business plans.

“There’s sincerity behind everyone who’s involved with the Pauahi Foundation,” she says. “As the business grows, we will give more. The student beneficiaries of the scholarships are important and I’m glad I was asked to give.”

Potter consistently goes back to Ke Ali‘i Pauahi’s wish for her estate to uplift generations of “good and industrious” members of the community.

“That perspective of inspiring leaders, I think it’s really important,” Potter says. “It’s important to give back to your community. As a business owner, I know that I contribute not just to the 20 people that work for me, but also their families and beyond. What we do as a business makes an impact, and our reputation is everything, so I really take that to heart.”

“For leaders in the community, if you establish yourself and you are giving back to your community with a purpose – whether you’re a business owner, or a doctor or a teacher. Whatever you believe in, you deliver on that with your integrity that comes with being part of our overall lāhui and Ke Ali‘i Pauahi’s legacy.”
